

NORTH DAKOTA PROFESSIONAL COMMUNICATORS

Marion J. Piper Memorial Scholarship Application

North Dakota Professional Communicators (NDPC) is an organization of individuals employed in all aspects of communications: newspapers, magazines, radio, television, books, public relations, public information, marketing, photography and freelancing. NDPC offers opportunities for professional interaction, education and career development. The organization is affiliated with the National Federation of Press Women. The Marion J. Piper Memorial Scholarship is a tribute to Piper, a former NDPC member and noted North Dakota writer, editor and historian. She died of cancer in 1969.

This scholarship is open to any students enrolled at a North Dakota college or university, or Concordia College or Minnesota State University Moorhead in Minnesota. Male and female students are welcome to apply, and students should be studying mass communications or a related field.
